Dear Mr. Vice President:

I very much appreciate your giving me the other day a copy of your report to the President on your recent mission to Southeast Asia, India and Pakistan.

I have now read the report with a great deal of interest and have also taken the liberty of showing it to a select few of our senior people here who also found it to be of great value. I share fully the conclusions which you state so clearly in your recapitulation.

Once again, many thanks for your thoughtfulness in making this report available to us. It is returned herewith.

Respectfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
